Certain pages of the AOM website are visible to all site visitors. However, registration is required to enter the online community. All individuals must complete registration before they can track their food or activities, join a group, or post content. Registering is easy and free for individual users.

From the homepage, simply click sign up to be taken to our smart registration form.

The join the movement page explains what AOM is all about and shows a few example pages from the online community.

Note: those not logged in will not be able to view user and group profile from the online community except for the sample image provided.

How to Register

Registration is easy and only takes a few minutes. To create an account, the AOM website requires you to enter certain personal information (PI). Some examples are shown below. Our smart registration form may ask for more information based on your earlier responses and the type of registration you are requesting.

The image shows a registration form with a blue header containing the word "register" in white. Below the header, the form asks "What best describes you?" with two radio button options: "I am an individual who is interested in my health and wellness." (which is selected) and "I am a health care professional." Below this, there are input fields for "First Name:", "Last Name:", "Address: (Optional)" (with two stacked lines), and "Zip Code:". A "Continue" button with a right-pointing arrow is at the bottom.

Participants under 13:

Kids register using the normal registration form. The system knows based on birth date that they are under 13 and requests additional parent or guardian information.

- Email address required for a parent, not the child. Child instead creates a username.
- Parent must approve registration before it's final.
- Parent is sent emails detailing all of their child's activities in AOM Kids, including changes to username and password, which the parent can also change.
